Welcome to VIETNAM

I. Explore Vietnam and its geography

Vietnam is a long, narrow nation shaped like the letter 's'. It is in Southeast Asia on the eastern edge of the peninsula known as Indochina and its neighbors include China to the North and Laos and Cambodia to the West. The East Sea lies to the East and South. The mountains of the Annam Cordillera rise over most of the western side of Vietnam, while a thousand-mile (1,600-kilometer) coastline dominates the east.

At its narrowest point, Vietnam is only 30 miles (48 kilometers) wide. Two of Vietnam's largest rivers, the Mekong in the south and the Red in the north, end at the East Sea in huge swampy plains called deltas. These regions are home to most of the country's people and provide fertile ground to grow rice and many other crops.

II. Enjoying Danang: Tourist and leisure activities

In case you have some spare time on your hands, you might want to go for a little sightseeing tour in Bonn. The city offers various interesting sights and events for tourists.

You should check the following webpage for more information about Danang city: <https://danangfantasticity.com/en/>

III. Visa application: Advise and information on getting your visa

OVERVIEW

New policies from 15th August 2023 Vietnam grants e-visas for citizens of all countries and territories with 90-day stay duration and valid for multiple entry. Citizens of 13 countries enjoying unilateral visa exemption can stay in Vietnam up to 45 days.

Here are key points of the Vietnam Visa Requirements:

1. Vietnam Visa Exemptions

Vietnam's new visa policy effective from 15th August 2023 extends stay duration for 13 countries enjoying unilateral visa exemption from 15 days to 45 days, regardless of passport type and entry purpose. The 13 countries include: Germany, France, Italy, Spain, the UK, Russia, Japan, Republic of Korea, Denmark, Sweden, Norway, Finland and Belarus.

Below is the full list of 25 countries +Kazakhstan that are exempted from visa requirement: Brunei, Myanmar, Belarus, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Italy, Japan, Norway, Russia, South Korea, Spain, Sweden, The UK, The Philippines, Cambodia, Indonesia, Kyrgyzstan, Laos, Malaysia, Singapore, Thailand, Chile, Panama.

2. Vietnam Electronic Visa (e-Visa)

From 15th August 2023, Vietnam grants e-visas for citizens of all countries and territories with 90-day stay duration and valid for multiple entry.

Simply apply online for your tourist E-visa
(https://evisa.xuatnhapcanh.gov.vn/en_US/web/guest/khai-thi-thuc-dien-tu/cap-thi-thuc-dien-tu), valid for 30 days.

E-visa fee is USD 25, the processing time is 3 working days. You will receive your code by email to print your visa.

You can enter Vietnam on an e-Visa at any of the country's eight international airports, including Hanoi, Ho Chi Minh City and Danang, as well as 14 land crossings and seven seaports.

3. Vietnam Visa on Arrival

If you are planning a multiple-entry visit or a stay of more than 30 days, you will want to apply for a visa on arrival. To do this you'll need:

1. A 4x6 passport photo with a white background and no glasses.
2. A filled-out visa application form (https://visa.mofa.gov.vn/_layouts/registration/ApplicationForm.aspx)
3. A passport or substitute ID valid for six months from the date you plan to enter Vietnam.
4. Payment (25 USD to 50 USD) for visa fees, and
5. A Letter of Approval from a Vietnamese Embassy or consulate (if you are picking up your visa at the airport).

If you are near a Vietnamese Embassy or consulate, you can submit your photo, application form, passport, and visa fee in person. This website (<https://visa.mofa.gov.vn/Homepage.aspx>) will guide you through the process.

If you are unable to reach a Vietnamese Embassy or are short on time, there are trusted services online that can provide you with a valid Letter of Approval for a fee. Bring this letter together with a visa application form and your other documents to the Visa on Arrival counter at the airport when you land.

TIP: You will need to pay your visa stamp fee in USD or Vietnamese Dong on arrival at the airport.

Greetings from The University of Danang !

A national leading university advanced with its mission by uplifting itself on the two wings of education and research.

Located in the heart of Danang - a dynamic city riding the crest of the thriving Central-Highlands, surrounded by three UNESCO World Heritage sites, namely Hoi An Ancient Town, the My Son Holy land and the Imperial City of Hue, the University of Danang (UD) has been growing strong and even farther with its strategic location nestled along the East-West economic corridor towards the gateway to the East Sea with development potentials and competitive advantages of the country.

Over 45 years of development, UD has always laid its focus on strengthening the human resources, improving the quality of training and research, considering it a “vital” factor, an ultimate goal of, and motivation for, to affirming the prestige and quality of a leading university in Vietnam, in the ranking order of the regional and international higher education system. UD has provided the Central-Highlands and the whole country at large with leaders, managers, experts, and entrepreneurs in many fields.

With a well-set mission and great responsibility entrusted by the Government and the Ministry of Education and Training, UD is geared towards becoming one of the three prestigious training and research hubs on a regional and global scale. UD will continue to affirm its international quality and prestige, making a significant contribution to the process of integration and renovation of the country's higher education.
